What to Know...

1) The East Asian Library is located on the second floor of the Charles E. Young Research Library.

2) It is one of the most major, comprehensive, and frequently-used East Asian collections in North America, as well as the largest East Asian collection in Southern California.

3) Holdings include various formats like print, e-resources, microform, and audiovisual resources in subject areas such as archaeology, art history, census & statistical data, film & theater, folklore, history, language & literature, religion and more.