Exhibit Description

This display celebrates the legacy of Robert Gore, who served as UCLA Library's visual arts librarian from 2005 to 2026.

Highlighting Robert's curatorial and instructional work with the Arts Library's Artists' Books Collection, the display introduces visitors to the concept and craft of artists' books while showcasing notable examples from a collection he helped shape throughout his career. It also features artists' books and photobooks that Robert frequently incorporated into his teaching, along with documentation of his pedagogical practice.
