

Phillip C. Castruita

Employment- (from 1979)

PC&A Consultants. 2010 to present.

Latino Scholastic Achievement Corporation - Latino Graduate.Net
Fundraising-Management consultant. 2010 to present

Hatch Industries, Aerospace Specialized Fasteners, Gardena California, 2010 to present
Management Consultant

California State University Fullerton
Instructor-Lecturer – Department of Chicano Studies. 2001- 2009

University of La Verne
EPIC Program (Educational Progress in Corrections) Assoc. Professor.(2001)
Instructor Lecturer (taught classes at the Heman Stark Youth Correctional Facility)
1995 - 2001

Superior Real Estate – Residential Sales Alhambra 1991

Century 21 Reality George Michael Reality
Alhambra
Residential Sales 1983- 1991

Academia del Quinto Sol 1982- 1983
Long Beach

One Stop Immigration
Los Angeles California 1979- 1982

Education

Claremont Graduate University
Masters of Arts in History emphasis on US History 19th and 20th century, History of the U.S. West, and Race & Representation (Cultural Studies)
(Also did some doctoral work.)

Santa Clara University Law School

University of California Berkeley
Cooperative Internship Program

California State University Los Angeles
Bachelor of Arts in History

Summary of Professional Experience

Administration
Counseling
Teaching
Grant writing, Program-management Development
Research
Curriculum Development
Budget and Fiscal Experience

Community Activities

Commemoration Committee of the 40th Anniversary of the Chicano Moratorium - 2010-2012
“Brooklyn & Boyle” Literary & Arts Magazine - 2009 – assisted editor, business plan
Avenue 50 Studio – Strategic Planning Committee and grant writing. 2008
President, Board of Directors, Aztlan Cultural Arts Foundation. 1999-2000.
Cal State Alumni Association, Board of Directors 1989-1991.

Professional Associations: California Faculty Association, Organization of American Historians.

Language competencies – Spanish

Computer skills: Microsoft Office, Word, basic Excel, Power Point. Sumac Data Base.

Honors & Awards Haynes Humanities Fellow, (Claremont Graduate University)
Cal State Alumni Association Award.

Personal Interests: Aikido (1st degree black belt), Photography, Music, Literature, Poetry, Painting, Back-Packing, Dancing